Q13. What is good about the course?

- Detailed explanations were given in classes the project topic is really interesting and it is a good experience to work with diverse teammates professor is really nice and responds to our questions effectively The contents discussed in this course is interesting and practical Regular MC questions are used to summarize the key points
- Professor Li is very considerate and patient, I guess she does a lot to perfect the experience of students in her class. She not only updates interesting videos and related information on the website, but also provides review outline and records students' presentations. I feel her class is very colorful and diverse and the grading policy is also pretty engaging. Exams are not everything, I have to devote some time in this class. All of these are very impressive~ Good instructor!
- Professor was always willing to help us and she provided a lot of materials in order to maximize our learning.
- She is very passionate about the students learning.
- The instructor is amazing and she is really dedicated in educating the young generation. She is willing to listen opinions of all kinds of students patiently which I found to be precious. She is always willing to help student in all kinds of aspects. Overall, I could not mention anything negative on the course.
- The professor is really nice and helpful during the semester. I remember when I was uncertain about some treatment in the group project, I went to professor for help. She was so kind to answer all my questions and give a lot of advice that could help me improve. Besides, professor even replies emails to help me find extra index sources, though she's extremely busy. I've really learned a lot from her.
- The professor is so supportive and respectful of students
